

Jaakob Alakulppi

Computer Information Systems Graduate

I am a motivated recent graduate looking to expand my current knowledge of computers systems and software development by actively engaging with various programs and technologies. I have a strong foundation in programming languages such as Java, C#, Python and SQL. I am a fast learner and open to all opportunities.

ibalakulppi@gmail.com

229-460-0537

Work Experience

Lee Office Company / Delivery & Assembly
August 2021 – Present

- Managed multiple delivery routes and specific client purchases.
- Built and fixed different furniture fixtures and cabinetry.
- Liaised with remote team members across the country and region.
- Taught and instructed new employees on job duties and tasks.

FedEx / Assembly Line
May 2021- August 2021

- Developed and maintained strong client relationships.
- Provided technical support as well as regular training to staff.
- Assisted clients with direction and location of multiple packages and delivery routes.
- Organized multitudes of packages throughout large facilities.

Education

Valdosta State University
Bachelor of Computer Information Systems
Minor in Computer Science
August 2020 – May 2023

Expertise

Brainstorming	Game Design
Prototyping	Programming
Back-end Coding	Puzzle Solving

Tools / Software

System Coding	Project Management
Design Software	Unity / Unreal Engine
Data Management	Data Analysis

Other

Check out my recent projects below:

<https://github.com/jkupi>